

A Balanced Navy:
Surface, Subsurface and Airborne Systems
(All pictures Royal Malaysian Navy)

Contents

Editorial

Congratulations! .....	1
Jan Wiedemann, Editor-in-Chief of this Special Issue

From a Coastal Keeper to a Modern Naval Force .....	3
YB. DATO' SERI HISHAMMUDDIN TUN HUSSEIN, Minister of Defence Malaysia

A World-Class Navy .....	5
Admiral TAN SRI ABDUL AZIZ JAAFAR, Chief of Navy, Royal Malaysian Navy

The Royal Malaysian Navy: 80 Years of Evolution .....	7
--	---

Competency Based Training and Assessment (CBTA) in the Royal Malaysian Navy .....	12
--	----

The Royal Malaysian Navy: A Strategy Focused Organisation .....	14
--	----

Op FAJAR: An Excellent Lesson in Strategic Partnership .....	16
---	----

The National Hydrographic Centre's Roles in Nation Building .....	22
--	----

Evolution of Royal Malaysian Navy Submarine Force Training .....	27
---	----

Matching the Right Man for the Right Job .....	30
---	----

Capability Development in the RMN and its Challenges .....	33
---	----

International Engagement and Involvement .....	37
---	----

Combined Maritime Forces: Benefits to the RMN .....	42
--	----

The International Fleet Review, the ASEAN Defence Ministers Meeting Plus Maritime Security Field Training Exercise and Triton Centenary 13 in Australia (IFR, ADMIN PLUS MS FTX and TC 13) .....	45
---	----

Index of Advertisers:

Boustead Heavy Industries Corporation.....	4
L3 Communications MAPPS.....	4th cover
MTU Friedrichshafen GmbH.....	3rd cover
Otto Piening GmbH.....	19
SAM Electronics GmbH.....	6
ThyssenKrupp Marine Systems AG.....	2
2nd cover	